

Peter Brown

Peter currently owns and operates Copper Beech Company and coaches members of business families in succession and other family business matters. Peter contributed to the enhancement of his public and business communities by writing newspaper columns, blogs on personal finance and family wealth, speaking to groups about personal finance planning and business succession. As a volunteer, he is the chairman of the Kiwanis Music Festival of St. Catharines and mentor through the City of Niagara Falls in a program called 'Starter Company.' Peter is one of six finalists across Canada for the Business Development Banks Canadian Mentor of the Year Award.
