Damian Goulbourne

Damian is employed as a professor at Niagara College in the School of Hospitality, Tourism and Administration. Previously he served as the Mayor of the City of Welland and Niagara Regional Councilor while continuing to teach on a part-time basis at Niagara College. He also has participated in committees for Niagara Economic Development Corporation, Niagara Peninsula Conservation, Niagara/Hamilton Waste Management Steering Committee, Niagara Economic Development Corporation, Welland Hydro, Welland Library, the Welland Recreational Canal Corporation, and currently is a member of the board of Niagara Community Foundation.