

Originally from Stratford, Ontario, Madeline has proudly called Niagara home since the early '80's. Having spent her entire business career in the financial sector, Madeline is currently a partner in Forrest Woodhead Wealth Management within National Bank Wealth Management.

Madeline's community involvement has included, the local, regional and national Jaycette organization, parent organizations with her children's school ,being board chair of the Welland Hospital Foundation, membership on standing committees of the Niagara Community Foundation along with being a past board chair of the Niagara Community Foundation and a past committee member of the Niagara Children's Centre.

