

Jean Armitage

Jean Armitage was appointed to the Hotel Dieu Shaver Health and Rehabilitation Board of Trustees in 2013. Prior to retirement, Jean worked as a University Professor. Jean was a Registered Nurse having worked in many facets of healthcare which include Nursing, Management, Regional Programs, accreditation surveyor and educator, SARS nurse for Toronto Airport, and interim CEO for a long term care facility. Jean also holds her BScN of Education and her MScN of Administration. Jean's community involvement has included volunteering for the Rotary Club of St. Catharines, the Community Breakfast Program, and Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW). Jean was president of CFUW in St. Catharines from 2012 to 2014. Jean also serves on the Board of Hospice Niagara, Child Advocacy Centre Niagara, Contact Niagara, VON Niagara, and Niagara Ina Grafton Gage.