

Mary Jane Johnson

Mary Jane Johnson is the Director of Communications for Hotel Dieu Shaver Health and Rehabilitation Centre and the Executive Director for the Hotel Dieu Shaver Foundation. Within these roles, Mary Jane is responsible for all public relations and strategic communication activities, fundraising initiatives, and the promotion of the Hospital and Foundation to the public and community.

Mary Jane came to Hotel Dieu Shaver with experience in the corporate and non-profit industry. Mary Jane had been the Corporate Relations representative at the Greater Niagara Chamber of Commerce, responsible for membership, sponsorship and customer relations. Prior to that, she worked at Venture Niagara Community Futures Development Corporation. Mary Jane started her career in Alberta as a Fund Development and Communications Coordinator at St. Michael's Health Group, an organization providing long-term care, supportive housing and programs and services to seniors. Mary Jane graduated from Brock University and has a Post Graduate degree in Public Relations from Niagara College. Mary Jane has been bestowed the Niagara Young Professional of the Year Award and has also been a recipient of the Niagara 40 Under Forty Award.

Mary Jane is heavily involved in volunteer activities within the Niagara Community. She has been involved in numerous fundraising events, in particular, Pearl Gloves, boxing event raising funds for the MS Society of Niagara. Mary Jane is a member of the Wise Guys/Wise Girls Committee that raises funds for various charities across Niagara.